Brian Vickers #42 from Thomasville, North Carolina

USAR HOOTERS ProCup Series

At just 16 years of age, Brian Vickers is already in his seventh year of racing competition. Brian is quickly earning respect as one of the next generation of talent working their way towards the professional ranks.

Brian has been racing competitively since 1994, when he began with the World Karting Association (WKA). Brian quickly developed into a well-respected competitor, winning three National championships, four N.C. State championships, and two individual track championships between 1995 - 1997.

After four successful years of karting competition, Brian and BLV Motorsports made the decision to enter the Allison Legacy Race Series in 1998. During the course of the season, Brian captured seven pole awards and earned five wins overall. He finished fourth in National points, while earning the runner-up position in "Rookie of the Year" standings. Brian also finished fifth in the N.C. State point standings.

For 1999, BLV Motorsports took a major step forward with their decision to compete in the NASCAR Winston Racing Series' premier Late Model Stock division. Despite their rookie status, Brian and the team quickly established themselves as one of the top Late Model teams at a number of tracks, including Hickory Motor Speedway, Tri-County Motor Speedway, and Caraway Speedway. Brian ultimately captured 11 pole awards and 6 victories during the 1999 season, earning himself and BLV Motorsports numerous awards at seasons end. In addition to "Rookie of the Year" honors and runner-up in the Late Model championship at Tri-County, he was also voted "Most Popular Driver" by the fans. In addition, Brian was voted Motorsports Magazine's "Rising Star of the Year" and became the youngest feature division winner ever at the historic Hickory Motor Speedway.

For the 2000 racing season, Brian and the team have decided to enter the USAR Hooters ProCup Series. "ProCup features some of the best drivers in the country," states Vickers. "We chose the ProCup series because we'll be racing what is basically a NASCAR Busch car, but on a bias-ply tire, on some tough tracks like Lakeland (USA International), Myrtle Beach, and South Boston. The competition here is tough, but we have a great team and good equipment, so we're looking forward to this challenge."

Brian's current goals are to compete for "Rookie of the Year" honors in the USAR Hooters ProCup Series and then progress to one of NASCAR's major touring series, such as the Craftsman Truck or Busch Grand National division, as the next step towards achieving his goals.

Mike Laughlin, Jr. #7 from Simpsonville, South Carolina

DRIVER PROFILE

Michael Laughlin, Jr., driver for the VALENITE Racing Team, is destined for a brilliant career in stock car racing, the most competitive form of motorsports in the world. Michael was born with the natural ability and shrewd judgment required to make split second decisions at high speed. Michael has spent his entire life in the shop at Laughlin Racing Products learning the technical aspects of racing from the ground floor.

Although only 26 years old, Michael has already compiled an impressive driving record and has experienced the highs and lows of building a successful driving career. Starting on the Southern dirt tracks as a teen, Michael had progressed to the Busch Grand National ranks by 1996, running a limited schedule to prepare for an assault on the BGN Rookie Championship in 1997. In the season's final event at Homestead, tragedy struck as Michael was severely burned in a fiery crash. After six months of intensive physical therapy to restore mobility to his injured hands, Michael returned to competition on July 19, 1997, at Greenville-Pickens Speedway and recorded a dramatic victory in front of thousands of screaming fans.

The 1998 season will be a busy one for Michael and the VALENITE Race Team. Junior will run the entire USAR ProCup schedule as he competes for the USAR Rookie Championship. In addition, the team will compete in selected NASCAR Busch Series events in preparation for Michael's return to the BGN circuit.

Michael's fearless, aggressive driving style is in direct contrast to his off track personality. Junior's youthful enthusiasm and natural, southern charm make him an ideal spokesman for our sponsors and a favorite with fans both young and old. Being raised in the high profile world of racing has prepared Michael for his off track responsibilities, be they in the corporate board room, behind the microphone or in front of the camera.

Michael and his wife, Carolynn, currently live on the family farm in Laurens, South Carolina, where he enjoys hunting and fishing and other outdoor activities.

In 1993 he began his first year as car owner and driver. He won the World Cup 300 at the I-70 Speedway, The Snowball Derby at Pensacola, Florida, and the World Crown 300 at Jefferson, Georgia. Gill found the year to be very successful as owner and driver.

In 1994 Gill decided to run the NASCAR Slim Jim All Pro Series and finished second in the overall points championship.

In 1995 he ran the Hooter's Cup and finished sixth in the overall points.

In 1997 he joined Terminal Trucking Motorsports and won the Hooter's Late Model points championship.

In 1999 Gill started his own team again with PGT Industries and Naturally Fresh Food and Salad Dressings, as sponsors. He had a total of five wins, fourteen Top Fives and nineteen Top Tens winning the Hooter's Pro Cup Championship.

KANNAPOLIS, NC

At the young age of eight, Mike Herman, Jr. was being groomed for a career in racing. He raced karts from 1983 until 1992 and won numerous events, championships, and awards. Herman began racing at the Hickory Motor Speedway in 1992, while still devoting himself to karts. But in 1993, Mike opted to race in the Limited Sportsman Division on a regular basis. The 1994 racing season turned out to be a stellar season for Mike as he earned his first feature win and fourth place in division points. With Thulman Eastern, the nation's largest fireplace distributor, coming on board in 1995, Mike had a very successful rookie season in the NASCAR Late Model Stock Car division, with strong season ending finishes at Concord and Myrtle Beach propelling the Thulman Eastern team into the makings of a successful 1996 season. After already earning the team's first career pole position at the WILCO 300 Big TEN series race at Concord, Mike is looking forward to a great second half of the 1996 Winston Racing season.
